

Become an Extension Master Gardener

Enroll in Michigan State University Extension's Master Gardener Program Today!

Every Wednesday 5:30 to 9:30 p.m.
March 17, 2021 to June 16, 2021
Offered online

* All classes will be taught virtually on Zoom. You must have internet access with a working webcam. Curbside pickup of textbook in Clinton Twp and Royal Oak.*

Gain Access to World Class Gardening Knowledge. The 14-session curriculum will provide horticulture training based on university research. This training consists of approximately 45 hours of training with classes on:

- Orientation
- Plant science
- Soil science
- Integrated pest management
- Diagnostics
- Annuals and Perennials
- Woody ornamentals
- Lawns
- Vegetables
- Small fruits
- Tree fruits
- Household and nuisance pests
- Gardening practices to protect water quality
- Volunteering

Have An Opportunity to Serve. After completion of the training, Extension Master Gardener (EMG) Certification is achieved with completion of 40 hours of horticulture-related, educationally- focused volunteer service. Examples of volunteer projects and service may include: designing a school garden, designing and caring for gardens at senior centers, parks and other public sites, teaching others how to garden, establishing vegetable gardens to meet local nutritional needs, and/or beautifying community sites.

The registration fee is $325 which includes the 1,000-page training manual and the Michigan State University Extension Volunteer Selection Process background check.

Registration Deadline – March 5, 2021

To enroll in the Extension Master Gardener training, please complete the registration and agreement forms online at <https://events.anr.msu.edu/mqmacombspr21/>

Questions?

Contact David Lowenstein at Lowenst6@msu.edu 646-789-6149

Health &
Community Services

Michigan State University is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities. Accommodations for persons with disabilities may be requested by contacting the event contact two weeks prior to the start of the event. Requests received after this date will be honored whenever possible.